SEP. 2016 – APR. 2017 PROGRAM SCHEDULE

Museum on the Move Tour – Museum Education Staff

Join the Education staff at the Museum as we visit the Museum as “Sixth Graders” in the interactive program, Museum on the Move! Engage in exhibition tours and art activity.

Wednesday, Sep. 21, 2016, at 11:00 AM

NSU ART MUSEUM – Meet in Museum Lobby

Review of the Exhibition: Belief + Doubt – Sarah Michelle Rupert

We will learn about this exciting exhibition of contemporary art, a vast majority of which is by female artists working from the 1990's to the present. We will also learn about the unique private collection from which it derives by collectors Francie Bishop Good and David Horvitz.

Wednesday, Oct. 19, 2016, at 10:00 AM

NSU ART MUSEUM – Horvitz Auditorium

Coming of Age: American Art, 1850's to 1950's – Docent Speakers' Bureau

See how great American artists like Winslow Homer, James McNeil Whistler, Georgia O'Keefe and Jackson Pollack moved the center of the art world from Paris to New York.

Wednesday, Jan. 18, 2017, at 10:00 AM

NSU ART MUSEUM – Horvitz Auditorium

Inventing Abstraction/How a Radical Idea Changed Modern Art – Armando Droulers, Art Historian and Educator

Beginning in 1911 a series of artists exhibited works that marked the beginning of something radically new: they dispensed with recognizable subject matter.

Wednesday, Feb. 15, 2017, at 10:00 AM

NSU ART MUSEUM – Horvitz Auditorium

Jewish Artists – Docent Speakers' Bureau

See how a group of artists expressed their Jewish identity as influenced by two World Wars, the Russian Revolution and the immigrant experience.
