Dear Teachers & Educators,

This program presents three concurrent solo exhibitions of South Florida artists who have dedicated their long careers to the daily act of art making. The featured artists are Matthew Carone (born 1930, lives and works in Fort Lauderdale), whose daily-executed gestural abstractions have made him a mainstay in the South Florida art scene; Panamanian artist Jaime Grant (born 1965, lives and works in Miami), who on the day he turned 50, believed he was visited by a spirit who drove him to create more than 5,000 paintings and to build machines that reflect the struggle between good and evil; and long-time South Florida resident, Elizabeth Thompson (1954-2023), who produced commanding canvases of mysterious narratives, including a series of landscapes based on the Florida Everglades, which form the cycle of mural-scaled paintings in her solo show at NSU Art Museum.

ABOUT MUSEUM ON THE MOVE

Museum on the Move is an innovative education program that invites Broward County students to NSU Art Museum. The program enhances learning and increases engagement by involving students in interactive programs of the Museum’s exhibitions and hands-on art activities based on principles of STEAM (science, technology, engineering, art, math) along with 21st Century learning skills. These programs combine observations and discussions of the artwork where students learn to recognize mediums, materials, and the artistic process. The art activities are designed for students to recognize how different elements function together to express ideas and emotions, solve visual dilemmas, and realize artists’ intentions.

Book your Museum on the Move field trip today. All Broward County Public Schools receive free transportation and tour! During their encounter, students participate in a guided tour led by an Art Educator. Students engage in conversation exploring methods of critical, and divergent thinking. In-person field trip visits also include a hands-on art making activity led by an educator. Additionally, virtual offerings can be tailored to the needs of the virtual classroom. Several virtual learning modules are available to choose from, each specially designed to suit your teaching needs: Live Virtual Zoom Tours (one per semester), and Elements of Art and Principles of Design prerecorded video series includes art talk and activity, art making videos and printable lessons and activities.

KEY ARTISTS

Jaime Grant
Elizabeth Thompson
Matthew Carone

KEY TERMS

Abstract Art - Art that increasingly moves away from the naturalistic image although it is still somewhat identifiable.

Process Art - Focuses more on the act of making, experimenting, and discovering, rather than the art product itself.

Narrative - Something that tells a story.

Landscape - Show us natural scenery like mountains, buildings, and other views outside.

Mural - A painting applied directly to a wall usually in a public space.
Teacher Guide Activities Overview

The activities in this guide can be adapted to fit the grade level of your students. Each activity is based on the featured artists in the exhibition. Feel free to use this guide as a starting point for your physical or virtual classroom.

Description: The work of The Daily Act of Art Making explores South Florida artists who have dedicated their long careers to the daily act of art making. Through discussion, research, writing, and observation, students will explore the concepts associated with these artists and their work.

Learning Objectives:
- Students will analyze artworks and think critically about what artists may have intended to represent in their works.
- Students will compare and contrast the modern period to present day.
- Students will build an understanding of the art-making process by creating plans for artworks of their own.

Essential Questions:
- What can we learn about life and culture from the past?
  - How does life and culture compare to today?
- What aspects of these South Florida artist’s artwork allows you to understand the lifestyle and events of the specific time the art was made?
- How have the artists used their medium to communicate, or archive their ideas?
Western Art History
Timeline

Prehistoric (30,000 BC - 2500 BC)
Associated with art made prior to the invention of written languages and record keeping, like cave paintings and stone carvings.

Ancient Egyptian (3,000 BC - 300 AD)
Associated with stylized depictions of people, and objects used for religious and ceremonial purposes, like canopic jars, and sarcophagi.

Greek Classical (500 BC - 300 BC)
Associated with idealized images of the human form, seen in red and black figure pottery, marble sculpture and architecture.

Roman Classical (500 BC - 450 AD)
Associated with narrative art that realistically depicts figures and architecture.

Byzantine (500 - 1200)
Associated with mosaics and stylized, symbolic art that presented Christian themes.

Celtic, Saxon, and Viking Art (600 - 900)
Associated with illuminated manuscripts and ornate metalwork.

Romanesque (1000 - 1300)
Associated with art supported by religious patrons, strayed away from realism, and included high relief sculpture and stained glass.

Gothic (1100 - 1500)
Associated with religious sculpture, stained glasses, and a unique architectural style, recognized through elements like pointed arches, flying buttresses, and rose windows.

Renaissance (1400 - 1525)
Associated with a revival of classic Greek and Roman aesthetics, references to the bible and mythological subject matter, and realistic paintings and sculptures.

Mannerism (1520 - 1600)
Associated with exaggerated, distorted figures and complex subjects.

Dutch Realism (1600 - 1700)
Associated with small scale artwork, depicting symbolic images, and everyday activities of common people.

Baroque (1600 - 1700)
Associated with themes similar to the Renaissance, but much more dynamic in movement, color and drama.

Rococo (1730 - 1800)
Associated with highly decorated, ornate, and lighthearted subject matter.
Neoclassicism (1770 - 1830)
Associated with large-scale artwork, with strong compositions, displaying ancient Greek and Roman standards.

Romanticism (1770 - 1850)
Associated with strong emotion, an emphasis on the imagination, and going against the social standards.

Realism (1855 - 1900)
Associated with depictions of real life and everyday people.

Impressionism (1860 - 1880)
Associated with artwork that depicted light's effects on it's subjects, using pure color, and apparent brushstrokes.

Post-Impressionism (1885 - 1905)
Associated with thick application of paint, distinct brush strokes, and real life subjects.

Fauvism (1900 - 1907)
Associated with artwork that used intense color and pattern, but simple subjects.

Expressionism (1905 - 1933)
Associated with artwork that expresses feelings and emotions through the brushstrokes and color.

Cubism (1907 - 1922)
Associated with straying further away from realistic depictions. Depicted distorted perspectives, and fractured the subject into geometric shapes.

Futurism (1909 - 1930)
Associated with artwork depicting the advancement of machinery and technology.

Dadaism (1915 - 1924)
Associated with the first conceptual art, using found objects.

Surrealism (1920s - 1930s)
Associated with artwork depicting dream-like imagery.

Abstract Expressionism (1940s - 1950s)
Associated with experimental painting, exploring freedom of technique, like in action painting, and color field painting.

Pop Art (1950s - 1960s)
Associated with highly decorated, light-hearted subject matter.

Op Art (1960s and beyond)
Associated with an abstract depiction of illusion through movement, pattern, and hidden images.

Postmodernism (1960s and beyond)
Associated with contradicting trends of modernism by encompassing high and low art forms. A break from artistic tradition.

Contemporary (1980s and beyond)
Associated with a wide range of media, techniques, and subjects. Constantly challenges our definition of art.

PRE-VISIT ACTIVITIES

Before your visit to NSU Art Museum, we recommend that you and your students discuss some of the ideas and themes in the exhibition. It is beneficial to introduce your students to a number of works from the exhibition. (You can find examples of the work below and on page 22)

OBJECTIVES

- Introduce students to Jaime Grant, Matthew Carone, Elizabeth Thompson and their works.
- Discuss themes related to the exhibition.
- Elements of Art and Principles of Design

What is Process in art?

Ask your students, what is Process in art? During this activity, ask your students to discuss what constituted their idea of an artist’s process in art. Help them consider what is encompassed in an artist’s process in art, how we interact with process, and why an artist would focus on process.

a. Compare and contrast the artwork below. Think about the idea of process in each artwork. Both have captured their landscapes in different ways.

b. Discuss their similarities and differences.

Make it Abstract!

This piece is titled Light of a Dancing Dream, it is an artwork that depicts abstract figures dancing. Create your own scene showing movement or something in motion. Use the elements of art and principles of design. As a class, discuss your artworks, your processes, materials, and concepts.

Use the three artworks below as examples of representational, abstract, and non-representational artwork.

Questions for discussion:

1. What is a better style of art: representational, abstract, or non-representational? Why?
2. Can you find any similarities between the representational piece and the other two paintings?
3. Which elements of art and principles of design are incorporated in each piece? Do the artworks share any of them?
The Elements of Art and the Principles of Design

The Elements of Art are the basic parts used by Artists in creating art; they are what you use to create an aesthetically pleasing work. When we make Art, we need to understand and apply these seven Elements of Art.

Line A mark made by a pointed tool such as a brush, pen or stick, a moving point. Different tools make different kinds of lines.

Shape A flat, enclosed area that has two dimensions, length, and width. Artists use both geometric and organic shapes. Shapes come in many types and sizes.

Color Is one of the most dominant elements. It is created by light. There are three properties of light: Hue, Value, and Saturation. Colors can be bright, dull, dark, and light.

Value Degrees of lightness or darkness. The difference between values is called value contrast.

Form Objects that are three-dimensional having length, width, and height. They can be viewed from many sides. Forms take up space and volume.

Texture Describes the feel of an actual surface. The surface quality of an object; can be real or implied. Texture can be smooth or rough, hard, or soft, etc.

Space Is used to create the illusion of depth. Space can be two-dimensional, three-dimensional, negative and or positive.
The Principles of Design describe the ways that artists use different strategies for creating a work of art.

- Balance is the distribution of the visual weight of objects, colors, texture, and space.

- Contrast is the difference between elements in a work of art, like color, line, shape, and texture.

- Emphasis is the part of the design that catches the viewer's attention.

- Movement is the path the viewer's eye takes through the work of art, often to focal areas.

- Pattern is the repetition of an element in a work of art. The pattern can use color, line, shape, or the other elements of art.

- Scale refers to the size an object in relationship to another object. It is the feeling of unity created when all parts relate well with each other. When drawing the human figure, scale can refer to the size of the head compared to the rest of the body.

- Harmony is when the elements of an artwork come together in a unified way.
Leaf Rubbing Landscape

Create a landscape using leaf rubbings.
Follow the steps to create a landscape inspired by Elizabeth Thompson.

Discuss some or all of the following topics as a class:
• What is abstract art? (Art that uses shape, line and color to create a piece that represents a thing or artist’s message without using a visual reference)
• What is the difference between regular and irregular pattern? (Regular pattern is when the element repeated is predictable, and exact. An irregular pattern is when the element repeated in unpredictable and imperfect.)
• Have students give examples of regular and irregular patterns around the room or classify a given set of shapes.

Gather some leaves from outside and arrange them on top of a scrap sheet of paper.

Place a different sheet of paper on top of the arranged leaves. Take your crayon and shade overtop the paper using the side of your crayon.

Rearrange the leaves and place your paper on top of your paper again.

Shade overtop the paper using a different colored crayon. Continue this process using more colors or finish your Leaf Rubbing Landscape in this final step.
