My school group and I will be asked if we are carrying any food, drinks and/or large bags as they are not allowed in the galleries. Museum staff will collect and store these items, and we will get them back at the end of our visit.

My school group and I will be led by our docent through the exhibitions. We can ask our Docent questions, but we will raise our hand and wait to be called on before we ask.

Some of the art we see may be on a pedestal, on the floor, on the ceiling, framed on the wall, or the art may be the wall itself. We will be mindful of our bodies and the space we are in.
